Dear Brother,

Kindly allow me to thank you on behalf of myself and as President of the Hindustani Seva Dal for your kind hospitality and the excellent arrangements at the meeting you convened at the time of my recent visit to your place. Please also accept my thanks for the skip help that you have rendered to the Dal in your place from time to time.

I hope, in future also, you will continue the same kind and whole-hearted support which you have given to the Dal till now and render every possible assistance to the authorities and members of the Dal in carrying on their work.

Trusting in your help and co-operation in Dal's work and thanking you again, I am,

Your Brother,

Jawaharlal Nehru
